

ARE YOU PAYING ATTENTION?

1. In the latest Age/Nielsen poll, how many points did Kevin Rudd's approval fall?

2. The Ultranet, a virtual classroom program for parents, was launched at which secondary college?

3. Britain is using extra police patrols and thousands of pounds worth of CCTV cameras to protect what?

4. Which area near Mallacoota are residents protesting about Justin Madden's proposed breakwater?

5. Tony Abbott is under pressure for telling primary school students what?

6. Austrade approached which company to get permission to use the slogan "Australia Unlimited"?

7. Which market does Melbourne City Council want to turn into the "Federation Square of the north"?

8. For what has Melbourne firm Logie-Smith Lanyon hired a sharia consultant?

9. Which two British parties are in talks over forming a coalition government?

10. What is NASA carrying into space on its next shuttle mission?

11. What is being established in Victorian schools to improve poor indigenous attendances?

12. Which play did reviewer Cameron Woodhead give five stars to?

13. How much money was wiped off the Australian sharemarket last week?

14. 250 T-shirts were sold to Melbourne Storm fans with what slogan?

15. Which is the only AFL club not to have won a match this season?

Compiled by Silas Aitton

ANSWERS: 1. Fourteen 2. Ringwood 3. A rare flower 4. Bastion Point 5. That it was warmer when Jesus was alive 6. News Ltd 7. Vic Market 8. To advise Muslims on Islamic legal codes 9. The Liberal Democrats and the Conservatives 10. A piece of Sir Isaac Newton's apple tree 11. Football and dance academies 12. Waiting for Godot 13. $90 billion 14. FCUK GALLUP 15. Richmond

MALLACOOTA'S Bastion Point is one of the state's genuine eco-tourism havens. A modest modification to the existing ramp is all that's needed ("Residents at breaking point over surf plan", The Age, 10/5). Look north to Noosa for a valuable lesson learnt.

Sarah Wintle, North Croydon

CMYK +