

AND ANOTHER THING ...

Spying scandal

Tony Abbott seems to believe not talking about intelligence matters and not talking about matters intelligently are the same thing.

Campbell Hackett, Highett

As Indonesia has been so upset by Australia, I guess it won't accept any more of our foreign aid money.

Ian Anderson, Ascot Vale

I can't find any reports of Indonesia's apology for the killing of five Australian journalists in Balibo, Timor, in 1975.

Celeste Burgess, Safety Beach

Baron Fisher wrote in 1919 that the secrets of a happy life were to never contradict, never explain and never apologise. We must have a happy PM.

John Tudor, Bethanga

Since assuming office Mr Abbott has weakened our relationship with Indonesia and strengthened it with Sri Lanka. Both actions have damaged our international reputation.

Brian Sanaghan, West Preston

Indonesia would be wasting its time trying to gather intelligence from here.

Henry Herzog, St Kilda East

When did Bill Shorten become Indonesia's lapdog?

Fabio Scalia, Windsor

Politics

Mr Abbott, there's a difference between campaigning and governing.

Tony James, Battery Point, Tas

Cyclones in Sardinia in the middle of November. Another normal weather event, Mr Abbott?

Rob Park, Surrey Hills

Elsewhere

Mr Abbott, get yourself to Bastion Point post-haste. The people there need help to stop the boats.

Amanda Searle, Blackburn South
