Bastion Point Beach Balls Target Labor's Bulldozer Politics

Wednesday 4 November 2010

What: More than 40 beach balls with heartfelt messages from Mallacoota residents will be delivered to Premier Brumby's office to highlight Labor's bulldozer politics when it comes to Bastion Point. Labor recently announced 6.5 million in funding for a destructive breakwater and road at Bastion Point despite there being an alternative, community-supported, more environmentally-sensitive solution available.

When: Friday 5th November at 11 a.m.

Where: 1 Treasury Place, East Melbourne

Spokesperson: Tim Frazer, Save Bastion Point Campaign
